

Summary

Editorial.....	261
Memories in movement: photography and commitment, the trajectory of Claudia Ferreira 1980-2014	271
Ana Maria Mauad
The representation of death of children in Brazilian cemeteries (nineteenth and twentieth centuries)	291
Alberto Gawryszewski
Humanist photography and the formation of a historiography on Latin-American photography	314
Erika Zerwes
National cinema, for whom? Associations, reception, and transnationalism.....	328
Wolfgang Fuhrmann
School cinema as birthplace of entertainment.....	344
Fábio Godoy Del Picchia Zanoni
Urban landscape records in some visual and written readings: sensitive captures and spaces(s) of town(s).....	359
Ana Heloisa Molina
The boy of Rugendas, from the wall to the virtual space: what changes in cartoons?	378
Gilberto Maringoni
Represented cities: a reflection on studies of the press and city in Brazil Postwar	393
Luis Carlos dos Passos Martins
Ambiences, expographies and its objects: the German immigration in southern Brazil from museological narratives.....	408
Marlise Regina Meyrer
Rosane Márcia Neumann
Daniel Luciano Gevehr

Which America? Brazilian intellectual formulations about Latin America at the turn of the century and their impacts on the constructions of national identity	426
Rafael Rossotto Ioris

Free Articles

Agricultural development and the migration process in Brazil.....	445
Claudia Maria Prudêncio de Mera
Agrarian legislation in Rio Pardo nineteenth century	463
José Antonio Moraes do Nascimento
The 'prenda' and the vote: the early insertions in the women's Rio Grande do Sul elections (1933-1935).....	480
Mônica Karawejczyk

Reviews

After photography: a literature outside itself , by Natalia Brizuela	497
Carolina Martins Etcheverry
About the Atheist manifesto , by Michel Onfray	501
Luís Francisco Fianco Dias
Karl Monsma, Review of reproducing racism: fazendeiros, blacks and immigrants in the West of São Paulo, 1880-1914	508
Glen Goodman	